Telpay Supports Musicians to Play Carnegie Hall

Telpay is excited to announce the sponsorship of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra's (WSO) Adopt-A-Musician program. Through the Adopt-A-Musician program, Telpay proudly supports the following violinists: Karen Bauch, Claudine St-Arnauld, Jun Shao, Hong Tian Jia and Takayo Noguchi by helping them fulfill their dream to perform at the world renowned Carnegie Hall in New York City on May 8, 2014.

The WSO is one of only six orchestras from across North America - and the only orchestra from Canada - selected to play at the prestigious SPRING for MUSIC. "Every musician dreams of playing Carnegie Hall, and performing in the Spring Music Festival is a huge honour for us at the WSO," stated Trudy Schroeder, WSO Executive Director.

Chris Epp-Vollrath President of Telpay stated:

"Telpay is committed to on-going financial support for a vibrant and thriving Arts Community for all to enjoy. We are delighted to support these talented musicians on their exciting trip to Carnegie Hall."

In addition, Mr. W.H. (Bill) Loewen, a Telpay Director, and Mrs. Shirley Loewen, will be attending the concert at Carnegie Hall. Long standing supporters of the WSO, both Bill and Shirley have been honoured as Directors Emeritus.
